Father Sam Ciccolini will speak at the meeting December 11, 2008

Interval Brotherhood Home in the Portage Lakes was founded in 1970 by Father Sam Ciccolini who began working with alcoholics when he was a seminarian in Cleveland. The 86-acre, free-standing, residential treatment center was a former Carmelite monastery that Father Sam arranged to purchase using his own savings. Since its opening in 1970, IBH has helped more than 15,000 women and men in their battle to achieve sobriety. Residents of IBH come from as far away as California and are welcomed into our treatment program regardless of race, creed or color and range in age from teenagers to senior citizens. Representatives from more than 19 countries have visited IBH to analyze the success of the non-profit, non-sectarian, comprehensive drug and alcohol rehabilitation center.

Weaver/CALICO School Christmas Party

The primary purpose of CALICO is to provide a community based, educational center and daycare for toddlers and preschoolers who have special needs, or are typically developing. A special focus is placed on children that require nursing services and qualify as medically fragile. Nursing services are available on site. The Center is also designed to meet the needs of children whose technological and medical care may exclude them from other daycare opportunities. CALICO currently serves over one hundred children in nine classrooms at the Stow Center. The Center provides an opportunity for parents to work or pursue an education knowing their child is receiving quality care at CALICO. Club President Tony Malorni invites you to join him at the IAPBC Santa day, Friday, December 12, 2008 delivering presents to those children with special needs. Contact Tony at 330-592-1870 for more information.

Joe Sardone passes

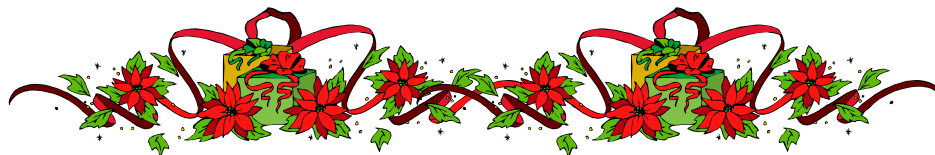

Our beloved brother and Club Sergeant at Arms Joe Sardone passed away November 26th. Our prayers go out to Joe's surviving family members and friends. Joe joins our friend and fellow member Sal Cicirello in a much better place and both will be greatly missed.
